Jurey; "Arapahoe Warriors," and Indian tune arranged by Edward B. Jurey and "Lullaby," a French tune arranged by Mr. Jurey. The final number, "Village Festival", based on a Czech folk song and arranged by Mr. Jurey, concluded the musical program.

Members of the orchestra are Edward Cabral, Francis Cabral, Karen Chase, Regina Cobb, Lucy Fearing, Helen Gibbs, James Hartley, Jonathan Hartley, Carolyn Lawrence, Allan Maccarone, Roger Metcalf, Brenda Ouellette, Richard Potter, Wesley Rollins, Jean Tavares, and Jane Wainio. MATTAPOISETT HISTORICAL SOCIETY
S O S

(1) Is there anyone who would be willing to volunteer to clip from the papers items of interest about Mattapoisett and any pictures of the town and its townspeople? Such a collection of clippings, kept up year by year, would in the years to come become of valuable historical importance.

(2) Then, is there not someone who can type who could give two or three hours a week to helping catalogue the many old documents of the Society?

Anyone willing to respond to either request please telephone Miss Sparrow, SK 8-6668.

(3) An interested friend has given the Society one display case, but we sorely need one more to complete our set for downstairs. Is there not another friend who would like to furnish us with this case or make a contribution toward its purchase? The case costs $35.00 The treasurer of the Society is Mrs. David Moore, Tel. SK 8-3883.
